EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

FAMILY DIVISION

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

LUBA DACE, Plaintiff, vs. ENRIQUE IVAN VELAZQUEZ-GONZALEZ, Defendant.	CASE#: D-18-575860-D DEPT. D

BEFORE THE HONORABLE ROBERT W. TEUTON

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2026

PARTIAL TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS:
ALL PENDING MOTIONS

APPEARANCES

For the Plaintiff: LUBA DACE, PRO SE

For the Defendant: MARIA LANDIN, ESQ.

Las Vegas, Nevada, Tuesday, September 15, 2026

[Case called at 11:13 a.m.]

THE COURT: Okay. We're on the record in case number D-575860. The one person I know of with certain, Ms. Dace, would you state your name for the record, please?

MS. DACE: Good morning, your honor. My name is Luba Snow Dace. I am representing myself.

THE COURT: Okay. And Ms. Rios.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Landon.

MS. LANDON: Good morning, Your Honor. Maria Rios Landon, Bar number 1646, in an unbundled capacity representing Enrique Velazquez-Gonzalez, who is also present on Zoom.

THE COURT: All right. And Mr. Velasquez-Gonzalez, if you would state your name -- open your camera, state your name for the record, please.

THE DEFENDANT: Enrique Valezquez-Gonzalez.

THE COURT: Turn off one of your devices. All right. Thank you, Mr. Velasquez Gonzalez.

We also have Ms. Green. Would you identify yourself for the record, please?

MS. GREEN: Yes. Mia Green with our Nevada Judges.

THE COURT: All right. Ms. Green, you may have heard, I did request, and they acquiesced my request that the hearing today not be video recorded.

I do understand that a year and a half ago, Judge Almasi, when she was the judge presiding over this matter, issued a carte blanche order that you could appear at any time for any hearing without immediate prior notice to record these proceedings.

Each judge acts independently in terms of how they proceed. My procedure is to require a media access request immediately before the hearing because I think each hearing is unique, may involve subject matter that is appropriate or not appropriate for video recording, although the proceedings do remain open to the public.

So you do have personnel present in court. You obviously are observing, and we will proceed with the understanding that it's not being video recorded. If you wish to do so in the future, the request needs to be filed 24 hours in advance. All right.

MS. GREEN: Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you very much. Okay. So we are on calendar today. This is -- where to begin. It started with the mother's emergency motion to enforce the existing court orders, followed by the father's opposition and the mother's reply. I have reviewed the file. I have reviewed the Court of Appeals judgment entered September 3rd concerning the reaffirmance of this Court's jurisdiction to proceed in this matter and the outcome of the prior appeals. And I'm prepared to proceed. I think I understand the respective arguments and -- but as a moving party, Ms. Dace, you may proceed.

[Designation of the record ends at 11:16:04 a.m.]
