Mexico too dangerous for spring break, Texas officials say bbc.com

I'm sure you're monitoring this carefully. It's a serious concern. E is a total asshole for taking B to Mexico right now. I don't care if it's to his parents, the optic just looks bad & it's unnecessary. Who is paying if he doesn't work? Lots of unanswered questions

In Monterrey, in his parents house (where he is staying on this trip) cartel attempted to kidnap Enrique previously. His parents moved to Texas for 2 years because of how dangerous the city was. He testified to this in the divorce.
I don't want any trouble with the court but I'm so worried.
See map of Monterrey and Tamaulipas state.
We'll talk about it tonight

FYI - Bob just came into my office & wanted me to pass on his continued & now stronger advise about not consenting to Bella going to Mexico. I guess 3 more women were (something bad) in Mexico.
E has no job here, he doesn't have to take B to Mexico, & threatened to kidnap her (by saying he'll just take her, then it's your problem to get her back), where he's taking her is near Matamoras, E has already been kidnapped by cartel himself .....
Just passing it on
Do you think it would be wise to file an emergency motion? Given all the concerns Bob mentioned and the fact they E is supposed to provide a phone number where I can reach them per decree. Instead he has my number blocked.

courts and I already have their permission to travel with my daughter. We are crossing safely through CBX, as long as you provide the passport as directed by the court. Please understand if you chose once again to refuse to give me the passport, I will be filing a motion to have it put in my hands indefinitely. Please also be aware that you not handing over the passport will not stop my trip. It will just force me to drive across the border to get to our flight instead of parking at the CBX on the US side. Please also realize I will not be able to get back in the same way so you will then be responsible for whatever cost and time that will comes with that. Hopefully you will decide to do the right thing on your own this time without any more trouble. Thank you
This is E's message about going across the border without the passport
No, Bob mentioned it.
State Dept upped travel advisory to Level 4 - "Do Not Travel"

Don't sign that motion - got a couple of changes

Ok. Thank you Ben! I'll be home in 30 minutes and sign the updated version.

I'm on my way home

Sounds good

I emailed you a signed copy

I see. Check email - I'm filing now

Nothing in my email yet

Be patient

You did a great job

Obviously you need to talking parents him & just say you're done. He's NOT picking up Bella on Wed.

NO WAY !

Can I call you in 20?

Yes

Mar 13, 2023 at 19:05

Ben I forgot to tell you Enrique attempted to renew Bella's passport on March 8 without telling me. My email is registered with the passport bureau so I got an email alert. I just forwarded the email to

Telephonic hearing tomorrow at 8:15
Thank you. Grimes is back on the case? He is going to throw a lot of dirt on me in front of the the judge tomorrow.
Heck, I like having him now. He amuses me. I think he should disclose that he's got a conflict & is being represented by malpractice counsel due to what he did in this case. How is that NOT a conflict?
Yes it is. We will have to disclose it if he doesn't.
Plus, I think he needs to file a notice of appearance. I need to disclose in writing
I wonder if he will

Yes. Same old accusations
I have to apologize for rushing to get the motion filed to prevent a written parental kidnapping threat.
Jeez - this adversarial BS is out of control. How about protecting the safety of the child?
Grimes has nothing but to call me a racist lol

You know, the opposition really doesn't refute the basis of the entire motion. - that Mexico is dangerous right now.

Why can't his parents come here? That seems a lot cheaper

They can, they just don't want to. They also have an apartment in Cancun right on the beach. Cancun is level 2 warning. It's a bit safer

You just doing it on your phone? Coming to office seems very wasteful, but I can only do 2 calls from my phone system

I'll just come into your office. I'll be there no later than 8. Does that work?

Yes. Don't be late. I guess your mom prob has to watch kids or she could see how

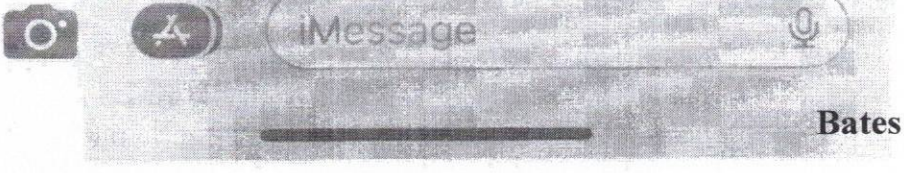
Maybe, but this is just about the travel. Let's just go with he didn't activate the talking parents video and did not provide the CBX tickets, which are a required part of the itinerary. And you were reasonably concerned due to the State Dept warnings & his admitted history of being kidnapped & seeing his cousin shot by the Cartel. Was cousin killed?

Mar 18, 2023 at 09:07

Ok I agree. I think his cousin

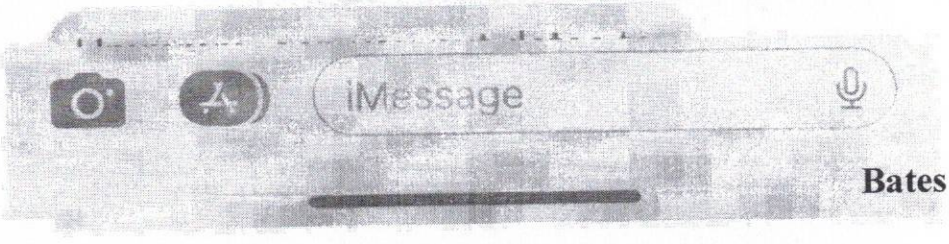


Mar 18, 2023 at 09:07

Ok I agree. I think his cousin lived. His uncle was kidnapped in 2013 and they found him dead in a ditch.

What? He told you that?

He had a meltdown on the phone with me when it happened. His uncle was missing for a couple of weeks and then they found him. This happened in Monterrey, Enrique lived in Cancun at the time. Enrique left Monterrey and was living in Cancun because of the attempts of kidnapping on him, also in Monterrey. His parents with his brother and sister moved to McAllen TX for two years, they were scared. All of this happened around the same time. First time I met his parents was in McAllen TX when they lived there.



Hmmmm, can you put dates to those events? Make a timeline

Enrique and I met in July of 2013. I went back to visit him in August 2013, October 2013 and December 2013 for a month.
In February 2014 he went to his parents house in Monterrey before he moved to Las Vegas in March 2014. His uncle was killed between August 2013-February 2014, before E moved to Las Vegas.

In December 2016 we took [redacted] to Monterrey to be baptized (his family is Catholic). I was only allowed to leave the house w Bella in a bulletproof car. Things were calm in 2016, there were no travel warnings.

Correction  in February 2014 E visited his parents in Texas, not Monterrey Mexico. His parents were living in McAllen
